Instructions:

- Contribution for Probate Judges on Fees – A Probate Judge who is a member of the Judicial Retirement Fund and compensated by fees must annually contribute six percent (6%) of a “base sum” equal to 90% of the annual state compensation paid to Circuit Court Judges. This contribution is payable in equal monthly installments.
- Method of Calculation – In the formula above, (a) equals the annual state compensation paid Circuit Court Judges; (b) equals the base sum, or 90% of such annual state compensation to Circuit Judges; (c) is the prevailing rate of contribution for members for the Judicial Retirement Fund; (d) equals the annual contribution of the Probate Judge on fees as of the reporting period; (e) equals the amount of deduction and remittance for the reported month.
- Remittance Payee, Deadlines, and Interest – All remittances must be made payable to the Judicial Retirement Fund and mailed to the address above.

Remittances are due to the Judicial Retirement Fund on or before the first day of the month immediately following each reporting period.

Remittances received after the due date will be subject to an additional interest payment based on the amount of regular contribution and the average rate of interest earned on invested assets of the fund.
