

Week 7 Update

The Legislature convened for the fifteenth, sixteenth, and seventeenth legislative days of the Regular Session this week.

The House Ways and Means General Fund Committee gave a favorable report on SB58, by Sen. Orr, which requires a public employee who is found guilty of certain felony offenses related to his or her position to use his or her retirement contributions to pay restitution.

No new bills dealing with RSA were introduced this week.