

Never respond to unsolicited emails, text messages, or phone calls requesting personal information to verify your retirement account, retiree bonus, or reactivate an online account. The RSA does not contact members via email or phone to verify or request security information. Be safe with your private information.