

1. Has the RSA conducted auctions in the past? If so, what was the approximate annual revenue?

RSA has conducted auctions over the last 5 years with an approximate annual revenue of $11,000.

2. What type of assets will be marketed (i.e real property, personal property and/or equipment)?

Personal property and/or equipment, the majority being IT equipment and office equipment/furniture.

3. Would RSA be willing to pay a one-time flat fee for the auction site instead of per-item commission?

Payments will be made no more frequently than monthly.

4. Would the RSA entertain the idea of integrating the online auction solution on the RSA website instead of a third-party site?

RSA is not seeking to integrate the online auction solution on its own website.
